Steve Wariner

The intense guitar work counterpoints excitingly with the smooth, warm voice . . .CHICAGO TRIBUNE

Kentucky native Steve Wariner, a young performer whose guitar playing is breathtaking. He kept turning out these fast, fluid, tuneful guitar runs that mixed country, pop, classical and rock influences in a way that sounded as much like Willie Nelson as it did Mark Knopfler. Maybe it's best to leave comparisons aside and say he sounded like Steve Wariner, who is going to be big someday . . . LOUISVILLE TIMES
